

Williamsport, Pa. July 20, 1883

My Dear Boy,

Rec'd your letter or card from Elmira. Your Mother thought you ought to have written more about the folks. Augusta has not heard from Bird yet and no letter has come this A.M. either. You little know how I miss you. Uncle DH is yet away - all his people were up to supper Wednesday night and Mama was down there last night and Augusta was at Bunnell's to a party last night also, so I was all alone at home and it was lonesome I tell you. Hope you will have a nice time up there, but is cold here. All well.

Love to all,
Affy. Yours,
C.M. Merriman

No mail has come for you. The pony is all right yet.
